

There is way too much violence on TV! I don't know how today's "standards" of violence became acceptable, but for my taste it is absolutely horrifying what adults and children are exposed to today. I also do not agree with those who believe that violence is harmless in comparison to sex and nudity.